
August 2005

18th Annual Printing Association of Florida Awards PRIDE's Print/Graphics Division.

Calhoun

Award of Excellence; Covers, 4 or more colors
NCIA News, National Correctional Industries Association

Judges' Award; Booklets: Small, 4 or more colors
St. Petersburg – Welcome to the Sunshine City, City of St. Petersburg

Cross City

Judges' Award; Misc/Specialty/Novelty, 4 or more colors
12th Annual CAN/HHA, Florida Department of Health

Judges' Award; Misc/Specialty/Novelty, 4 or more colors
Volusia County, Volusia County Commission

Judges' Award; Misc/Specialty/Novelty, 4 or more colors
Experience the Magic; Nation Youth Crime Prevention Conference

Award of Excellence; Screen Printing Pressure Sensitive Products, 4 or more colors
City of Fort Pierce, Department of Defense

Best of Category; Screen Printing Pressure Sensitive Products, Posters/Signs, 4 or more colors
Historic Waterfront Gateway, City of Sanford

Best of Category; Screen Printing Pressure Sensitive Products, 4 or more colors
Fire & Emergency Services, City of Fort Pierce Florida

Sumter

Best of Category; Brochures & Broadsides, Small Special Application Active Rehabilitation Services, Palms of Pasadena Hospital

Award of Excellence; Stationary, 4 or more colors
Indian River Police Business Card, Indian Creek Village Police Department

Judges' Award; Stationary, 4 or more colors
Harmony High School Letterhead, Harmony High School

Judges' Award; Stationary, 4 or more colors
Harmony High School Business Card, Harmony High School

Judges' Award; Stationary, 4 or more colors
Florida Lottery Business Card, Florida Lottery

In Addition, the Printing Association of Florida submitted a piece of work created by Cross City to the Graphics Arts Technical Foundation which holds annual awards. This is the first entry ever submitted from the Print Division and PRIDE received a Certificate of Merit for a Pressure Sensitive Decal. This is a national award of which we should be very proud.